ADDITIONAL Student Requirements

- A $50.00 one time application fee for all new students
- A photo submission with application for all new students
- Every new potential student needs to meet with the Director of the Junior School prior to attendance to the program.

Location of Appointment: Neighborhood Playhouse Skype/FaceTime

Application and all materials must be submitted prior to your appointment. Once confirmed into the program, a medical/photo release, enrollment agreement, and student handbook agreement will be sent to you. $100 secures your child's spot in the program. Please, fill out the forms completely and return to the school before the start of classes to ensure your child is able to participate in the physical work that is required in most classes.

Please note that placement in Groups is at the discretion of the Junior School Director. Some ages and grades overlap. We keep the grade, age, and maturity of the child in mind when placements are made.
